ELIZABETH GIBBS - JOHN SNODDERLY

Elizabeth Gibbs was born circa 1765 in Orange County, North Carolina (Burlington Liberty Road to the south west of the present Burlington, North Carolina), the oldest daughter of Nicholas and Mary Efland Gibbs. She married John Snodderly circa 1785-86 in Orange County, North Carolina and moved sometime after this to ~~Campbell~~ County, Tennessee, probably at the time Nicholas and family moved to East Tennessee. John was born circa 1760 (1765-66) in Orange County, North Carolina and died circa 1835 in Campbell County, Tennessee and is buried in the Lost Creek Cemetery, now Union County, Tennessee, where the first church stood. John was the son of Phillip and Elizabeth Turley Snodderly of St. Asaph's District of Orange County, North Carolina. It is not known when Elizabeth died or where she is buried, but she died sometime after the 1850 census was taken. after 15 Oct 1850

Anderson Co.

The name John Snoterly appeared on the Orange County, North Carolina tax list for the first time in 1787, assessed on no property and taxed on one poll, so it is possible he became of age this year. If this is true, John would have been born circa 1766 and probably married at the age of 19 or 20. He was the oldest son of George Phillip and Elizabeth Snotherly (Schnatterly) Jr., often spelled Snoderly, Snodderly, Snoderley and Shatterly.

John in 1801-1807 in Anderson Co on Tax List.

In 1830, Campbell County Census, page 234, John had one male between 20-30, one male between 30-40, and himself between 60-70, wife Elizabeth between 60-70. This would make both John and Elizabeth born between 1760-1770. They were the parents of 10 children.

I. George Snodderly born Sept. 17, 1787 Orange Co., North Carolina, St. Asaph's Dist., d. Aug. 20, 1852 Campbell Co. Tennessee, m. May 4, 1808 Tabitha Rice b. Nicholas Gibbs, Jr., who fell at Tohopeka (Horseshoe Bend) 1814, in the War of 1812. Brothers-in-law George Rice and George Snodderly operated a shop for making guns, George Rice being the son of James Rice who built the Old Rice Mill. The Campbell County Court records of June 2, 1823 show that the Treasurer of East Tennessee was ordered to pay $8.00 to George Snodderly for four young wolf scalps he brought to court. (This was a custom in Tennessee in early 1800's to help rid the area of wolves which were dangerous to the inhabitants). In the 1830 census of Campbell County, Tennessee, George Snodderly, pg. 232, is listed with 1 male 5-10 years, 2 males 10-15 years, 1 male 15-20 years, himself 40-50, 3 females under 5, 1 female 5-10, Tabitha 40-50. Her husband and 8(9?) children continued on their destination to Linn County, Oregon. Her grave and skeleton was found in 1974 at the Casper College, Casper, Wyoming while the college was excavating for a bridge-ferry. The skeleton was placed in the museum there waiting to be claimed by a descendant. Other sources have said Quintana was buried in the Blue Mountains of Eastern Oregon and Ash Hollow, Nebraska. She is said to have been a relative of pastor Joab Powell. In the 1830 Campbell Co., Tn. census p. 232 Jacob was 20-30 years of age, wife 15-20, 1 male under 5 years.

+ 2 M i. Nicholas Gibbs was born on 29 Sep 1733 in Village Of Wallruth, Krumbach, Baden, Germany and died about 1817 about age 84.

+ 3 M ii. Peter Gibbs died in Germany.

+ 4 M iii. Abraham Gibbs .

+ 5 F iv. Mary Gibbs .

+ 6 F v. Catherine Gibbs .

Second Generation

2. Nicholas Gibbs was born on 29 Sep 1733 in Village Of Wallruth, Krumbach, Baden, Germany and died about 1817 about age 84.

General Notes: It is believed that the forefathers of Nicholas Gibbs, because of religious and political reasons, migrated from England, their mother country, about the time of the execution of Charles I in 1649 and the reign of Oliver Cromwell. They sought refuge along the Rhine River in Germany and it was in the village of Wallruth, near the town of Krumbach, Duchy of Baden, that Nicholas was born on September 29, 1733.

In the original Gibbs family there were three brothers, Peter, Abraham, and Nicholas, and two sisters, Mary and Catherine. Abraham and Nicholas came from Germany to America, Nicholas coming to America in 1747 and Abraham sometime prior to that time. Peter died in Germany before Nicholas left for America. Abraham settled in the town of Fredericktown, Maryland and his descendants were residents of Baltimore, Maryland in 1846. Nicholas, named for his father (Nicholas of Germany), became offended with his father in some way and left home for America at the age of 14 years (1747). He left home with 30 guineas ($150.00 in American money), which the captain of the ship told him was just half enough to pay for his fare across the ocean, so Nicholas sold his time to pay for the other half.
After working his time out for the other half of his fare, he joined the English army and served five years in the French and Indian War. While he was a soldier his brother, Abraham, heard of him and sought an appointment with him. Nicholas had no recollection of ever having seen his brother, so he applied the criterion his mother had given him by which to identify Abraham, should ever they meet, which was a spot or scar on Abraham's head. Finding the spot on Abraham's head, he at once claimed him as his brother. After serving his tour of five years, Nicholas went to Frederickstown, Maryland to live with his brother, Abraham. However his brother's wife and he did not harmonize, so Nicholas went to North Carolina and settled in Orange County, where he married Miss Mary Ephland and where part of his family was grown and some married before he came to East Tennessee to settle 12 miles northeast of Knoxville, Tennessee, near House Mountain.
Nicholas sold his property in Orange County, North Carolina on October 12, 1791 to Obed Green. His daughter, Catherine, married John Holmes on October 17, 1791 and it is believed that shortly after her marriage he and his large family moved to East Tennessee and settled in what is now Knox County. His old home is still standing near Harbison's Cross Roads (1952). Acccording to Tennessee records, Nicholas bought 450 acres of land in Hawkins County on March 6, 1792, for 200 pounds, "including Beaver Dam Fork on Beaver Creek." This section of Hawkins County later became part of Knox County, when on June 11, 1792, Governor Blount issued an ordinance defining the lines of Greene and Hawkins Counties and laying off two new counties, Knox and Jefferson.

On July 18, 1792,[1] the first court in Knox County was held by James White. On April 25, 1796, the first County Court was begun under the State Constitution, at which time Nicholas Gibbs was one of the Justices of Peace commissioned by the Governor. On April 25, 1796, Nicholas Gibbs was given a grant of 100 acres on Beaver Dam Creek (Knox County) for "services in the Continental Line" (Land Grant Records, Raleigh, North Carolina, Book 88, Page 193, Grant 257, dated March 7, 1796). This grant is also recorded in Knox County, Tennessee, Book B, No. 2, Registrar's Office, and his name appears on the Knox County roll of Revolutionary War soldiers as having participated in the Battle of King's Mountain.[2] Both Nicholas Gibbs and his wife are buried in an old cemetery located on Emery Road, near Harbison's Cross Roads, North Knoxville, Tennessee. In 1915 stones were erected on the graves by some of his descendants.

Judging from the Knox County Court records, Nicholas Gibbs took an active part in civic affairs until his death, which presumably was in 1817, as his will, dated May 19, 1810, was probated in the July 1817 Sessions Book 2, Page 343, Knox County, Tennessee. This will lists all of his children as follows: seven daughters, Mary, Sarah, Catherine, Silphenia, Elizabeth, "Sophie's heirs", and Barbara; sons, John, David, Jacob, George, Nicholas, and Daniel. At the death of his wife any remaining estate, land excepted, was to be divided as follows: one dollar each to his sons and all remaining estate to be divided equally among his seven daughters. His sons, John and Nicholas, were appointed executors and witnesses were sons, Jacob Gibbs and Daniel Gibbs. John Gibbs, oldest son of Nicholas Gibbs, was born about 1780 and died August 13, 1840. He was buried in Gibbs graveyard in Andersonville, Tennessee, and the grave marked by a rock with his name written on it. On August 8, 1797 he married Ann Howard, born about 1777 in Virginia. They had the following children:[3]

John Gibbs was a Justice of the Peace in Knox County, Tennessee, in 1802,[1] later moving to Anderson County, Tennessee. The following notice of his death was abstracted from a file of East Tennessee newspaper [sic] 1791-1865:
"John Gibbs, Esq. departed this life in Anderson County, Tennessee after a protracted illness of 50 days. His disease was apoplexy. He died at 7 o'clock in the morning, on the 13th day of August (1840), in the 71st year of his age. For more than 30 years he filled the office of Justice of the Peace, was Entry Taker, etc., and once represented this county in the State Legislature. He was a man of strict urbanity of manner, honest and respected, a kind father, indulgent master, good neighbor and strict friend, lived respected and died lamented."
John Gibbs, in 1821, owned 1091 acres on the Clinch River, where the present city of Norris, Norris Dam and Lake now is in Anderson County, Tennessee. He sold this farm to Jacob Weaver, who deeded it to his daughter and she, in turn, deeded it to her son. He deeded it to his son, who deeded it to Mrs. Seetha Longmire. For five generations the farm remained in the family of Jacob Weaver. Mrs. Seetha Longmire was 73-years-old when the U.S. Government bought her land to build Norris Dam. Mrs. Longmire had spent all her life up to this date, except one year, on this farm. She moved with her son, Austin Longmire, to Maryville, Tennessee, in 1934 and died in January, 1941, at Maryville, Tennessee.
John and Captain Nicholas were brothers, both soldiers in the War of 1812. Captain Nicholas was killed in the Battle of the Horse Shoe, 55 miles south of Fort Strother, in Alabama, on March 28, 1814, leaving a wife, whose maiden name was Rachel Doyle, and two sons, William Daniel and John.

John Gibbs was a Justice of the Peace in Knox County, Tennessee, in 1802,' later moving to Anderson County, Tennessee. The following notice of his death was abstracted from a file of East Tennessee newspaper [sic] 1791-1865:

"John Gibbs, Esq. departed this life in Anderson County, Tennessee after a protracted illness of 50 days. His disease was apoplexy. He died at 7 o'clock in the morning, on the 13th day of August (1840), in the 71st year of his age. For more than 30 years he filled the offce of Justice of the Peace, was Entry Taker, etc., and once represented this county in the State Legislature. He was a man of strict urbanity of manner, honest and respected, a kind father, indulgent master, good neighbor and strict friend, lived respected and died lamented."

John Gibbs, in 1821, owned 1091 acres on the Clinch River, where the present city of Norris, Norris Dam and Lake now is in Anderson County, Tennessee. He sold this farm to Jacob Weaver, who deeded it to his daughter and she, in turn, deeded it to her son. He deeded it to his son, who deeded it to Mrs. Seetha Longmire. For five generations the farm remained in the family of Jacob Weaver. Mrs. Seetha Longmire was 73-years-old when the U.S. Government bought her land to build Norris Dam. Mrs. Longmire had spent all her life up to this date, except one year, on this farm. She moved with her son, Austin Longmire, to Maryville, Tennessee, in 1934 and died in January, 1941, at Maryville, Tennessee.

John and Captain Nicholas were brothers, both soldiers in the War of 1812. Captain Nicholas was killed in the Battle of the Horse Shoe, 55 miles south of Fort Strother, in Alabama, on March 28, 1814, leaving a wife, whose maiden name was Rachel Doyle, and two sons, William Daniel and John.

In March, 1814, General Andrew Jackson mobilized the Tennessee Militia, made up of Volunteers from the East and West Tennessee Militia and the Thirty-Ninth U.S. Infantry for a full-scale campaign against the Red Sticks (the Upper Creek). General Jackson's army totaled about 3,000 men, including Lower Creek, Cherokee and Chocktaw.

Jackson's army left Fort Williams on the Coosa River (Mississippi Territory) and marched 52 miles through the forest in three days. They made camp six miles north of Horseshoe Bend. The Red Stick's had built a barricade on the river, which eventually trapped them once Jackson's soldiers surrounded them.

Over 800 Red Sticks died as a result of the Battle of Horseshoe Bend. It is considered part of the War of 1812. General Jackson's dead included 47 Americans, and 23 Native Americans. The following is a letter to George W. Gibbs dated March 20, 1846 from William Gibbs McAdoo From the first issue of The Gibbs Magazine, published by The Nicholas Gibbs Historical Society. Colin P. McKinney Chancellor Olin P. McKinney Chancellor Geo. A. Gibbs, Clerk & Master The Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court of Obion County Union City, Tenn.

Clinton, E. Te. Friday, March 20th, 1846

Dear Uncle; Your letter of Jan'y 16th reached me in the full tumult of business which marks the close of legislative session. An illness which seized me immediately after adjournment and detained me three weeks in the vicinity of Nashville, also obliterated from my memory the fact of your having requested of me an immediate reply to yours, or at least a note acknowledging its receipt. When I reached home two weeks since and read your letter again, I thought it would occasion but little more delay to obtain the information you desired before I should write. I owe you this apology for not not having written you promptly on the receipt of yours as you requested.

I returned last night from a tour among our relatives. I obtained from Daniel Gibbs, in Knox County a German manuscript in pamphlet form containing in your father's handwriting a record of his own birth, birthplace, etc. and of the births of his children. It also contains a record of the birth of a 'Mary Gibbs' in 1745, who may have been his sister, as Aunt Snodderly and Uncle Daniel Gibbs both remember hearing his speak of having two sisters, Mary and Catherine; or she may have been his wife, as I believe your mother's name was Mary. His own name appears written in the manuscript several times, one or twice in English characters. The date of his birth is '29th of September, 1733. The place, as made out by my German translator (not a very efficient one, by the way) was the village of Wallruth in the town of Krumbach; and these are in the Dutchy of Baden, my translator informs me, who is himself from Baden. Part of the manuscript is illegible, but might be revived by chemical process. I shall either transmit it to you by mail along with this letter; or if I shall visit Nashville soon, as I expect, I may take it with me and endeavor to find some more certain method for its transmission. I would suggest to you to have it read by someone completely master of the German language. It is the only manuscript left of your father's papers which would be of any service to you. The greater portion of his papers passed into the possession of my father, John Gibbs; and my grandmother, (yet living) remembers of their having been destroyed and gradually scattered.

I can hear nothing of his Bible.

The preceding answers your first inquiry -- and last also.

The name of your Grandfather (your second inquiry) was Nicholas. Daniel Gibbs remembers of hearing him frequently saying of hearing your father say, -- I mean -- that he was named after his father; though your father's name appears once written in the German manuscript as John Nicholas Gibbs. Your father spoke often as having been reared on the river Rhine, and of coming away clandestinely at the age of fourteen on account of being offended in some way at his father.

I learn, in reply to your third inquiry, that yAour father had two brothers; one named Abraham, who lived in Fredericktown, Maryland, and whose descendants are now residents of Baltimore and with whom I believe you are acquainted; the other named Peter who is said to have died in Germany, perhaps prior to the departure of your father. I have already mentioned that the latter spoke of having two sisters also -- Catherine and Mary. Mr. Thomas Miller, of Knoxville, informs me that his brother residing in Baltimore, married a daughter of Abraham Gibbs and that Mrs. Miller has in her possession her father's Bible. Perhaps you could derive from it some information that would be of service to you.

In relation to forewarding the manuscript to you, will it not be better for me to retain it here at present, if any process of authentication be necessary? This idea occurs to me at the moment and I believe I shall keep it until I hear from you again. Your Aunts Graves and Sharp (sisters to your mother) to whom you refer me for information, are both dead.

I gleaned many little incidents in the history of our family from conversations with the other members of it; but none I now think of could, I imagine, avail you anything. I will take great pleasure in furnishing you any additional information you may desire and I can obtain.

I regret your inability to visit Nashville during our long unprofitable session there. I certainly expected you until I received your letter. I also hoped to have seen you and inquired for you at the Memphis Convention. If convenient, please remember me kindly to Mr, Bullock, your able and intelligent Representative in the last Legislature. Be kind enough to write me immediately if you please. Will you or your son go to Germany? Nothing but a lack of means deters me from visiting you and crossing the Atlantic with you -- not so much the prospect of pecuniary advantage as through a desire to look on the land from whence my fathers came.
Believe me most affectionately yours,

Wm. G. McAd00
(William Gibbs McAdoo)

> General Notes: Boston (Sebastian) Graves (Graff), was born Oct 1, 1747 in Berks County, Pa. His birth date appears in the records of Dunkel's Church, Greenwich Township, Berks County, so it is assumed that he was born in that township.
> An account of the marriage of Boston to Sarah Efland, daughter of Peter and Catherine Efland, is to be found in a affidavit accompanying his pension application, and because of the wealth of family data contained in his application for a pension for services performed in North Carolina during the Revolutionary War, and in affidavits made in behalf of his widow to enable her to obtain a pension after his death, an abstract of their papers has been made by the writer, as follows: Pension Application of Boston Graves (R 4213). Issued July 10, 1 833 $40 per annum from Mar. 4, 1831 - wife Sarah. Applied for pension Aug 23, 1832, in Knox County, Tenn. Age 85.
> Born in Pennsylvania on Oct. 1, 1747. Moved to Orange County, N.C., where he was drafted in 1779 as private in the Militia under Capt. Wm. O'Neal.
> Boston Graves and William Graves, who was single, were in the blacksmith business together. It was agreed that William Graves perform the war service since Boston had a family. So the two partners divided the profits, which was done in 1779 or 1780.
> When Boston was drafted the second time, for 5 or 6 months, he hired his wife's brother, John Ephland, whom he had raised and was then living with applicant, and being a single man , to take his place. Boston Graves had a substitute for the third draft. In 1781, he was drafted for the fourth time for a term of 3 months under Capt. Wm Rogers, Col. Wm. O'Neal and Gen . Butler. Applicant and Joseph Albright were ordered to work out their tour of duty in Orange County, N.C., at the blacksmith business. After one month he was ordered to Hillsboro, where he was taken prisoner, together with Lt. John Campbell, Col. Little and Gov. Birk and sent to Wilmington and put on board a ship and taken to Charleston, S.C., where he was finally exchanged.
> On Aug. 21. 1832, Mary Gibbs, now living in Knox County, who lived near Boston Graves in Orange County, N.C., testified that she knew that he was taken prisoner at Hillsboro and held for 11 months.
> On June 11, 1841, Sarah Graves made affidavit that her husband, Boston Graves, died April 1, 1840. Henry Graves and William Graves (preacher of the Gospel) made affidavit that they saw Boston Graves die and that they attended the funeral. George Graves was an acting justice of the peace in Knox County.
> On Dec. 8, 1841, Philopeni (Phyllis) Sharp of Anderson County, Tenn., testified: "I was present at the marriage of Boston Graves and Sarah Ephland, the wife and widow...; that in the early part of June 1769 in the State of North Carolina, Orange County, I rode from my father's house Peter Ephland, in company with Boston Graves and Sarah Ephland, now Sarah Graves, to Michael Holloway's where they were married by the county minister as he was then called and returned in company with them to my father, and that said Boston and Sarah Graves have lived together as man and wife from that time to his death."

> Witness: Henry Graves Sworn to before William H. Gibbs, Justice of the Peace for Anderson County.
> On Mar. 2, 1844, Henry Graves, 55 years old, of Knox County, a son of Boston, who died Apr. 1, 1840, and whose mother, Sarah Graves, died Dec. 28, 1842, testified that his parents left the following children: Catherine Sharp, Elizabeth Clapp, John Graves, Peter Graves, George Graves, Henry Graves and David Graves.
> Pension (for Widow) suspended for lack of proof of marriage. (Rejected pension claims, p. 401)
> In addition to the children mentioned, Boston Graves had a daughter named Mary, who married George Trout. (Records of Roy Stockwell) Boston also had a son named Daniel, who died in Knox County on Oct. 7, 1838. Daniel's wife was Sophia Clapp and they had 8 children. A son , John born Sept 20, 1804, married Catherine Graves, daughter of John and Sarah Sharp Graves . (Records of Roy Stockwell)
> Boston Graves' name appeared on the 1779 tax list for Orange County, N.C. assessed on property valued at $1,501, and in 1780

he was taxed on 129 acres of land. His name appeared for the last time on the 1785 tax list, still taxed on 129 acres. Records found in Montgomery County, Virginia, indicate that Boston spent several years in that county before settling in Knox County, Tenn., but he apparently retained his property in North Carolina until 1795 , when a deed from Boston Graves to John Iffland, dated Aug 25, 1795 (Orange County, N.C. Granter Book 6, p. 5) appears in the records. Judging from the birthplace of his children, he must have returned to North Carolina from Virginia several times before finally settling in Knox County, where he remained until his death in 1840. Boston's name appeared on the 1790 personal tax records of Montgomery County, Va., in 1790, having made a return on June 29, 1790, on 6 horses, living with him at the time was a male between 16-21. In this record, Boston's name was spelled Bostain Greaves. In 1792, he was taxed on 9 horses: in 1793 on 9 horses ; and in 1795 on 8 horses, with no sons under 21. He appeared in the 1791 Land Book for Montgomery County taxed on 50 acres of land.
At least one of Boston's children-Peter-was born in Virginia, in 1783. On Aug. 21, 1790 , Boston was a witness to the marriage of George Mann to Elizabeth Moyer (Mozer). On Apr. 22 , 1793, Boston's daughter, Elizabeth, married David Clapp (Marriage Book A-Montgomery County, Va). Boston Graves' name was given as father.
On Aug. 16, 1797, Boston Graves and wife Sarah, of the county of Montgomery, Va., deeded to David Price of the same county, 235 acres of land on "Clover Bottom waters of Sinking Creek, a branch of New River..." This deed was acknowledged in the Montgomery County Court of January 1798 by Boston and Sarah Graves. (Montgomery Co. Deed Book C, p. 95)
Daniel Graves' name appears in the 1830 census for Knox County, Tenn., age between 50-60 (1770-80), and it is likely that he was the oldest son of Boston and Sarah Efland Graves.
Boston's daughter, Catherine, married William Sharp, probably about 1789, as their daughter Sarah (Sally) was born Apr. 11, 1790 in Virginia, and is believed to have been the oldest child of the couple. Sally married Daniel Gibbs, youngest son of Nicholas and Mary Efland Gibbs. (They must have been second cousins, as Sally's mother Catherine and Daniel Gibbs would be first cousins)
The 1830 census for Claiborne County gives Catherine Sharp's age as between 50-60, so she was born sometime between 1770-80. (See History of William and Catherine Graves Sharp)
Elizabeth, Boston's daughter, married David Clapp, born Oct. 17, 1772 and believed to have been the son of Barney and Philopeni Moser Clapp. Barney Clapp, born 1741, was the son of George Valentine and Mary Albright Clapp. He married Philopeni Moser, born Dec. 24, 1741; died Jan. 12, 1780, daughter of Adam Moser, formally of Hereford Township, Berks County, Pa.
John Graves, son of Boston, was born about 1780 in North Carolina (1850 Knox County, Tenn. census) and married Mary Trout, born about 1782 in Virginia. (1850 Knox County Tenn. cens us.)
Boston's son Peter was born Sept. 15, 1783 in Montgomery County, Va., and on Apr. 4, 1806, married Jane Milton in Knox County, Tenn. (Obituary notice published in Bainbridge, Ind , newspaper) His wife died in 1853. After several years in Knox County, they settled near Bainbridge, Putnam County, Indiana, where he died Feb. 2, 1860. (Obituary notice published in Bainbridge, Ind, newspaper) They had 7 children. (Records of Mrs. C.C. Collins, Roachdale, Ind. , a descendant)
George, son of Boston, was born about 1785 in North Carolina, (1850 Knox County, Tenn . census) and married Ann Rutherford, born about 1791 in Virginia. They had no children. (Records of Roy Stockwell)
Henry Graves was born May 21, 1788, (The dates on Henry Graves and his family were copied from a Bible record on file at the D.A.R. Library, Washington, D.C. This Bible is owned by Ellis Reed Graves) and on Sept. 1, 1814, married Betsey Ann Grills, born Feb. 1, 1792, daughter of Elliott and Mary (Polly) Grills. Polly Grills died Mar. 13, 1821. They had 8 children . (Elliott Grills was the son of John and Philadelphia Grills, whose children were: Richard ; Elinor, m. Col. Thomas Ingles, son of William and Mary (Draper) Ingles; Elizabeth; John, m . (1) Aug. 18, 1785, Mary Ingles, daughter of Maury Ingles (Marriage records of Montgomery an d Fincastle Co., Va.); (2) Peggy Robinson, daughter of John, on Aug. 8, 1791; Mildred; b. Nov . 27, 1758 in Albemrle Co., Va.; m. on New River, Montgomery Co., Va., John McAdoo II, (b. in Augusta, later Botetourt Co., Va. Feb. 6, 1757; d. in Anderson Co., Tenn. Dec. 26, 1830. She died Jan. 8, 1838 in Anderson County), on Sept. 4, 1787. (Records of Mrs. Ada Morrow Reeves of Nashville, Tenn.); Elliott, m. Mary _____, who died Mar. 13, 1821)
Betsey Ann (Grills) Graves died June 14, 1850 and Henry died Feb. 6, 1870, in Knox Coun ty, Tenn.
David, (D.A.R. Lineage Book 100, p. 38) probably the youngest son of Boston, married in Knox County on Sept. 13, 1817, Mary Holloway (b. about 1795), who died Sept. 4, 1869. One of their children was William, born July 19, 1818, died Apr. 6, 1895, who married on Oct. 2, 1837, Mahala Graves, born Sept. 24 , 1821. The 1830 Knox County census gives David's age as between 30-40 (b. between 1790-1800). At that time he had 5 children, all under 10. David Graves died in 1846. (D.A.R. Lineage Book 100, p. 38) The Bible records on file at the D.A.R . Library stated that Sarah Graves died Dec. 28, 1843 "in her 90th year", so she must have been born about 1752-53 probably in New Jersey.

Knox County Tennessee 1806 tax lists Shows Bostian Graves taxed on 537 acres.

The tax lists for Anderson, Campbell, Claiborne Counties 1800-1820 list Bostian Graves.

Boston Graves is buried in the Graves Cemetery, now (1996) located east of the town of Graveston Tennessee. Turn south off of Tazwell Pike on Jim Wolf road, go about 1/4 mile to the home of Mrs Webster, on the left, Graves cemetery is located behind her house about 200 yards . This cemetery is very overgrown, all the tombstones are very difficult to read except Bostons', it has had a new marker put on it by the DAR in the last few years. Don & Scharmal Conley took a photo of Boston's tombstone in 1996. This tombstone reads: Boston Graves, North Carolina, PVT Capt Wm Rogers Co, Revolutionary War, Oct 1 1747, April 1 1840.

Nicholas Gibbs, Jr. and Rachel Doyle Gibbs++

Nicholas Gibbs, Jr. was born between 1777 and 1789 in Orange County, North Carolina. He is believed to be the youngest son of Nicholas Gibbs, Sr. and his wife Mary Efland. If this is true, since we are fairly sure George was born in 1784 and Daniel in 1786, then Nicholas would have been born closer to the 1789 date. The 1806 Tax for Knox County, Tennessee shows Nicholas Gibbs, Jr. with 160 acres of land. Unually land was not obtained until the male reached 21. If this is so, then Nicholas would have been born closer to 1785. Nicholas married in Knox County, Tennessee to Rachel Doyle on December 12, 1809; bondsman was William Morrow.

Rachel was born between 1780 and 1790 and died between February and April of 1847 in Knox County, Tennessee. Her will was probated April 1847 in Knox County, Tennessee. Rachel never remarried and is no doubt buried in the cemetery just off Emory Road with other Gibbs family members. The parents of Rachel are unknown, but in 1839 in Knox County the Doyle household were: David b. 1800-1810 m. 1823 with bondsman Isaac Doyle; Isaac b. 1790-1800 m. 1826; William b. 1790-1800 m. 1824; John b. 1780-1790; John (living next door to William) b. 1740-1750. One John b. 1780-1790 m. 1811 with bondsman John Sr. and John Jr. Other John marriages were in 1824 and in 1810. Rachel and.or her children did not apply for pension based on Nicholas' service or death. It is possible they could have applied for and obtained bounty land. The 1830 Census shous Rachel Gibbs living next door to Daniel Gibbs anbd James Crippen. Her two sons were between 15 and 20 years of age

I. John H. Gibbs b. ca 1811

II. William Daniel Gibbs b. April 25, 1812

The War of 1812 and The Battle of Horseshoe Bend

During the War of 1812 many of the Creek Indians were inflamed agaonst the Americans and were furnished arms and ammunition by the British, operating our of Penacola, which then belonged to Spain. Thr Creek War was a minor campaign between the United States and the Creek Indians in Alabama, the part of the Mississippi Territory, during the War of 1812. It was incited by Tecumseh, a Sahwnee Indian Chief, an ally of Great Britain, to halt encroachment on Creek lands by American settlers.

On August 30, 1812, the Creeks broke into the stockade at Fort Mims in lower Alabama an massacred 200 to 250 people (some accounts say 500 white persons were masacred). A call went out for volunteers and the govenor of Tennessee authorized an emergency force of 2,500 men, led by General Andrew Jackson, to be sent against the Indians.

General Jackson brought Militia from East Tennessee and marched to Horseshoe Bend arriving there on March 26. General Coffee with about 1,000 men, about 600 of thesebeinger Cherokee and about 200 Lower Creek, went to the Village of Tohopeka where they assaulted the barricade. Very few white Americans died at this battle. About 49 men were killed there and Nicholas was one of the first killed because he led the charge. Some accounts say bodies were thrown into the Tallapossa River. Nicholas was likely buried there on the banks and the grave unmarked. Over 2,000 warriors were killed in this battle.

In the Treaty of Fort Jackson, Aug. 9 (some accounts say the 8th),1814, Jackson forced the Indians to cede to the United States over 20,000,000 acres, more than half of the old Creek country. Cessions by the Creeks and other tribes between 1814 and 1819 gave most of the present state to the the United States, after which Indian lands were formed into counties and rapidly occupied by settlers.

TENNESSEANS IN THE WAR OF 1812 shows Nicholas Gibbs 2nd Lt. Mtd Inf. under Col. Samuel Wear and Capt. John Bayless (See The Story of the The Coffee Bean Tree). N. Gibbs Capt. E. TN Mil. under Col. S. Bunch and Capt. W. Gibbs; killed in action 3-27-1814.

The Tennessee State Library has a four page typewritten list entitled "TN VOL War of 1812 Buried in a 'Lost' Cemetary (sic) located on the bank of the Coosa River three miles West of Childersburg, Talladega Co., AL." Transcribed 1986 by Grover Eugene Pike, 326 Bedford Ave., Birmingham, AL. This seems to be to far a distance to be graves from the Battle of Horseshoe Bend. (See photo of Map of Alabama ~ Present time)

Note: A History of James Cannon Gibbs and Sarah L. Hickson by CliffordL. Gibbs April 12, 1983: James C. Gibbs was born ten milesnortheast of Knoxville, Knox Co., Tennessee to John H. and SusanGibbs, one of eight children. He married Sarah Hickson (dateunknown). The family later moved to Madison Co., Arkansas nearFayetteville, Arkansas. He enlisted in the Confederate ArmyOctober 26, 1861 at Fayetteville, Arkansas and was a Pvt.assigned to Company D, 1st Btn. (Stirman's Arkansas Cavalry,C.S.A.). Brothers Adison A. Gibbs and Benjamin F. Gibbs servedin the same unit with him. His military unit surrendered, andhe was mustered out near Fayetteville, Arkansas in 1865. In1871 he moved his family to Texas, where he settled fifteenmiles east of Gatesville, Coryell Co., Texas. Their farm waslocated on the Leon River and joined the famous Neff farm. PatNeff was born there the same year my father, L. C. Gibbs, wasborn, and they became playmates. Pat Neff later became Governorof Texas and President of Baylor University. Our father, LewisC. Gibbs, was born September 29, 1877. A short time after thisthe family moved to Santa Anna, Coleman Co., Texas. A few yearslater J. C. Gibbs was living in Comanche, Comanche Co., Texaswhere he ran a general store. In 1911 he moved to just outsideof Fort Worth, Tarrant Co., Texas where he lived until 1917. Forthe remainder of their lives J. C. and Sarah became nomadic,traveling about the countryside in small wagons called "Hacks".There were two of them, "his" and "hers", and they carried alltheir possessions with them. Their travels were mostly betweenthe homes of their children and relatives. They spent a greatdeal of time with their son, L. J. Gibbs, in Loco, Stephens Co.,Oklahoma, daughter I. Anna "Annie" Gibbs in Bowie, MontagueCo., Texas and would occasionally visit another son, WalterGibbs, in Wichita Falls, Wichita Co., Texas. Each Hack was aself-contained unit, which included facilities for heating andcooking and a bed. Even when they were with their children,they slept in their Hacks. In 1921 my father convinced themthat they should give up the nomadic life and he built a smallhouse on his farm for them. Grandmother Sarah became criticallyill and died without ever having lived in it. Grandfather musthave been a very handsome man in his prime. He must have beenabout six foot two or three and was never overweight while Iknew him. He was sixty-nine years old when I was born. He wasvigorous and remained so until senility set in. During the lastfew years of his life he wore a beautiful, long, silky beardwhich made him look like Father Abraham or one of the profits. Ioften have the image of him sitting if front of the stove in hisrocking chair combing his long white hair and beard. When hecame to our home, which was frequent, often staying two monthsat a time, he became truly the family patriarch. He took myfather's place at the head of the table and started each mealwith a long prayer for the salvation of those present as well asfor all heathens everywhere. He expressed thankfulness to Godfor the bountiful blessings and asked for the wrath of the Lordon all sinners. Then we ate our meal quietly, almostreverently. However, adults were permitted to speak if it wasof importance. I don't think Grandfather ever used alcohol oftobacco. I doubt if his religious beliefs would have permittedit. He was a very stern Baptist and ardently religious. Myearliest memories of him were his sitting on the porch, or inhis rocking chair reading his Bible. I think you would classifyhim as a practicing fundamentalist who considered the Biblebeing infallible and without error. My father often spoke aboutGrandmother and Grandfather leaving the family to care for thefarm and they would go to camp meetings for two weeks at a time.One of my prized possessions is Grandfather's Bible. It is wornbadly, apparently from being used so much. I do not recallevery seeing my Grandfather read anything but the "Fort WorthStar-Telegram" and the Bible. He was well informed on currentevents and was a good disciple of William Jennings Braun andTeddy Roosevelt. He vigorously supported Prohibition andoppposed Woman Suffrage with equal vigor. It seems that we havealmost completely ignored Sarah in this discussion. For somereason it is hard for me to perceive her in any other role thanthe obedient wife and mother. Perhaps she was so much dominatedby J. C. that she did not have the opportunity to project herown personality. She was always a very mild, almost docile,woman who was always trying simply to please and placateGrandfather. At the time of his death he had maintained astrong faith in God, the constitution, and the Southern BaptistConvention.--Confederate Pension Application, Tarrant Co., TX, App # 31926---In his later years he had become wheelchair bound. His childred/ grandchildren would take him for "walks" down the road. Oneof the homes that they would pass was owned by another eldrelygentleman who would sit on his porch. This man had served forthe Union while James had served for the Confederacy. Duringthese outings the two men would hurl insults and shake theircanes at each other. -------------------------------- [1]

FORT WILLIAMS

ALABAMA IN THE WAR OF 1812

The Fort Williams Cemetery site was located in Talladega County on a elevated rise on the east side of the Coosa River. The military road to Talladega passed to the north of the cemetery and continued in a northeasterly direction toward its final destination, Talladega . The fort which bore the same name, Fort Williams, lay to the west of the cemetery on a hill. Years earlier, Jackson's men had transported supplies down the Coosa and hauled them from the water's edge up the hill which lay in front of the fort. After the construction of Lay dam on the Coosa in 1914, the ruins of fort were noted by a passing traveler who wondered how much longer the weathered remains of the old fort would stand there overlooking the Coosa. Incredibly, the fort did not surrender to the elements until after 1928 when the dam on the Coosa was raised and the old fort fell into the Coosa. This, however, did not occur until the fort had endured several weeks of the water lapping at its foundation.

The Fort Williams Cemetery site survived because it was on higher ground. . The land on which the cemetery was located was donated by the Mitchell Family to the Fort Williams Memorial Association, a large stone monument was erected on the site in 1933 and Veterans Markers were acquired and placed for all of those who were identified as having been buried in the Fort Williams Cemetery. The Ghioto List identified 78 of those buried in the Fort Williams Cemetery

. An effort to get the U.S. Congress to extend protection to the Fort Williams Cemetery site died in the House of Representatives after the U.S. Senate had passed senate bill S2595. More information regarding senate bill S2595 and the correspnding house bill H.R. 7271 can be found in the Congressional Record: Index to the Proceedings and Debates of the Second Session of the Seventy-First Congress, December 2nd to July 3, 1930. These records were made available by Mr. Billy L. Atkinson, the Judge of Probate of Talladega County. The Fort Williams Cemetery site was recognized as a cemetery and accorded tax exempt status by Talladega County. The problem, however, during the decade of the 1930 was money.

FORT WILLIAMS CEMETERY AS IT EXISTED IN QUIET WOODED LOCATION PRIOR TO ITS REMOVAL

The Fort Williams Cemetery was removed in 2006 and the cemetery site and the adjacent area renamed "Riverbend". It is now being developed as part of a River Community on the Coosa River. The monument and markers were relocated at the same time and placed within the Riverbend Development in what the Riverbend Group refers to as a "Memorial Garden." The term "monumental" has also been used to describe the new site to which the markers and monument were taken.There is no record of any human remains having been moved.

A Short History Fort Williams

Fort Williams, located at the mouth of Cedar Creek and the Coosa River in what is now Talladega County, Alabama was constructed in 1814 to serve as a supply depot preparatory to the Battle of Horseshoe Bend on March 27, 1814. After this battle, Jackson returned to Fort Williams. The cemetery at Fort Williams became the final resting place of more than a hundred Tennessee militia and others. These others include Cherokee allies who fought with Jackson at the Battle of Horseshoe Bend, but who were buried apart from Tennessee militia and Creek Indians who were forced to come Fort Williams in 1832. For more information on these individuals, see Creek Indian Removal, the Creek Trail of Tears. More than 3,000 Creek were collected at Fort Williams in 1832 and many died there because the fort's commissary lacked adequate provisions.

The Gibbs' crest, as shown, is Scottish. Variations of the spelling are Gibb, Gibbe, Gibbs, Gibbes, and others. The motto translation is "Firm of purpose." This Gibbs crest was first found in Invernesshire. It is unknown whether on not John's family used this crest.

It is believed that the forefathers of Nicholas Gibbs (#199), because of religious and political reasons, migrated from England, their mother country, about the time of the execution of Charles I in 1649 and the reign of Oliver Cromwell. John Nicholas Gibbs, Sr. left England and married a woman in Amsterdam and never went back to London. They sought refuge along the Rhine River in Germany and it was in the village of Wallruth, near the town of Krumbach, Duchy of Baden, that Nicholas (#199) was born on September 29, 1733. (Source for the information in green is http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~shardon/gibbs/index.htm Don and Scharmal Triesch Conley, Kennewick, Washington, 99336.

John came from Scotland to England, then to Holland and Germany. Son Nicholas was born in Germany and came to America in 1747 at 14 years of age. (Source: ancestry.com: Compton/Roehrman Tree owner: lcqc717)

John and his wife had five children: Peter, Abraham, Nicholas (#199), Mary, and Catherine.
